There is no question whatever that any attempt in the coming election to override or evade the law will react disastrously upon the party that makes it.

The Goebell candidate for Congress, especially, will be the beneficiary of an honest enforcement of the law. The National Government cannot, and will not, permit a violation of laws which are enacted for the benefit of all. There is no reason why they should not be faithfully observed in Kentucky as elsewhere.

SUFFRAGE MUST NOT BE CORRUPTED OR COERCED.

It must be distinctly understood, therefore, that all violations of the election laws will be carefully noted, and the prescribed penalties rigorously and impartially enforced in every case.

The hand of the law will lie heavy upon all such offenders, high and low.

THE confession of FINLEY B. ANDERSON, one of TOM CAMPBELL's "star" witnesses in the trial of Secretary of State CALEB POWERS, is printed in full on the fourth page of this paper. It tells a story of infamy without parallel; and yet this scoundrel is no worse than the men who bought his perjured evidence.

EX-GOVERNOR W. O. BRADLEY and Mr. BENNETT H. YOUNG have decided to play quits in the contest of personal attack. Well, why not? BRADLEY has no Bank for BENNETT YOUNG to raid, and YOUNG has no character for W. O. BRADLEY to assail. There is no profit for either in the contest.

THE Paris Gazette, which is a Democratic paper flying the names of BRYAN and BECKHAM at its masthead, gives this good advice—

"The Gazette warns the political tricksters that there is trouble in store for vote-buyers on November 6th. Better let every man walk up to the polls, than to have to answer to an indictment in the United States Court."

"A SUBSCRIBER" bought a two-cent stamp to send in this "mot"—

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30, 1900.
Mr. T. A. Davis—Dear Sir: If you know all about the Banks, &c., why do you hesitate to say who and what they are? Respectfully,
Answer. A SUBSCRIBER.

It's dollars to Democratic deceased eggs that "A Subscriber" reads THE LEDGER that some one else pays for; but—

Have you seen FINLEY ANDERSON'S confession?

It will be well for some people in Maysville and some people in Mason county to keep in mind the following provision of the amended law under which the coming election will be held—

Sec. 15. Any person or persons who shall unlawfully attempt to prevent, or prevent any voter from casting his ballot, or shall attempt to, or intimidate, any person or voter so as to prevent him from casting his ballot, or who shall unlawfully interfere with the officers of election in the discharge of their duties as such, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, be confined in the Penitentiary for a period of years, of not less than one nor more than five years, for each offense. The fact that the person or persons so offending may be an officer or officers of the Federal Government, or of the state, or any district, county, town or city thereof, or of election, shall not relieve them of the responsibility or penalty for the violation of this section.

Ray's Chocolates, fresh from factory. The population of Kentucky, as given out by the Census Bureau, is 2,147,174, a gain of 288,839.

Miss Georgia Mae Ashurst and Mr. Charles Burgess Ecton will marry at the bride's home near Paris November 14th.

Miss Angie Sweeney of Georgetown and Mr. Patrick Carmody of Paris will wed Wednesday, November 14th. Miss Marie Sweeney of this city will leave Saturday to attend the wedding.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion. First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Mourning goods a specialty. Long Veils from $2 up. Mrs. L. V. Davis, 51, West Second street. Phone 108.

When you feel that life is hardly worth the candle take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, tone up your liver and regulate your bowels making you feel like a new man. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Mr. E. P. Nugent, the bankrupt Louisville merchant and father of Will Nugent, who is now confined in Jail on charge of receiving and holding the property of a bankrupt, has suffered a paralytic shock. Mr. Nugent is very old and feeble and it is feared that the stroke will prove fatal.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Compare it with other local papers and then say, if you can, that THE LEDGER isn't the best, and that it doesn't give the most for the money. Can't you afford to have it left at your residence for a month? Mr. Hal Curran will be glad to book your order.

IT'S IMPOSSIBLE

To Disprove Facts—It Is Decidedly Easy to Verify Maysville Opinion.

Nothing by way of an introduction could be added to the experiences and opinions given below which would increase their value. Maysville people can safely be left to draw their own conclusions based on such convincing proof as this citizen offers. What is there lacking in evidence like this to satisfy a dyed-in-the-wool doubting Thomas?

Mr. Elias Scudder, nurseryman, residing at 215 Casto street, says:

"I had a good deal of pain at times in my right kidney and it constantly grew more persistent. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I could hardly sit down in a chair or rise without placing my hands to my back and should I thoughtlessly bend over it pained me severely to straighten. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore corner of West Second and Market streets and their use effected an absolute cure."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. FOSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y.

HABEAS CORPUS SUIT.

Effort Being Made to Secure the Release of Green Golden From the Frankfort Prison.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 1.—An attempt will be made to release Green Golden from the Frankfort jail by habeas corpus proceedings, which were filed Wednesday afternoon. He is under indictment as an accessory to the murder of William Goebel. The motion will be argued before County Judge Moore. In the meantime an attempt is being made to reach an agreement to admit Golden to bail. He is a cousin of Wharton Golden, and was in Frankfort several days before and after the shooting.

Killed By a Woman.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 1.—Nettle Crowder, colored, was presented in the city court Wednesday morning on the charge of murder. The case was passed to November 2. Mose Tolbert, who was a rejected lover, went to the woman's house Tuesday night and tried to beat in the door with a hatchet. He had almost succeeded when the woman opened the door and poked out a 22-caliber pistol, with which she shot Tolbert through the heart, killing him almost instantly.

Died of His Injuries.

Winchester, Ky., Nov. 1.—Robert Trumbo, aged 15, son of Jacob Trumbo, a prominent farmer of this county, died from the effects of a gunshot wound in the groin, accidentally received ten days ago. In company with two other boys he was hunting, and a gun on the shoulder of a companion was discharged, inflicting a fatal wound.

Two Killed By an Explosion.

Greenup, Ky., Nov. 1.—In Carter county Fred Picklesimer, aged 13, and William Green Tackett, aged 18, were hunting opossums, when they went into a fire-clay mine to get oil to fill their lanterns. In striking a match they set fire to a keg of powder, which exploded, killing the Picklesimer boy at once. The Tackett boy has since died.

Young Man's Sudden Death.

Lancaster, Ky., Nov. 1.—Thomas Boil, a young man of this place, died suddenly at his home. He had not been detained from his business, but was slightly affected with a rising on his face. After the application of a poultice the rising broke, he sank into unconsciousness, was partially paralyzed and died in a few hours. He was about 30 years old.

Morgan County Quarantined.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 1.—Dr. J. N. McCormick, president of the state board of health, has written the local health authorities that Morgan county is under quarantine because of the outbreak of smallpox at Caney. No one will be allowed to travel from the county without the certificate of a physician.

Big Coal Pile Burning.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 1.—A queer fire is raging in Louisville. It is an enormous pile of coal in the L. & N. yards at South Louisville. The fire department has been battling with it for a week, but has made little progress toward subduing the flames. In order to get at them it will be necessary to move 500 tons of coal.

New Kentucky Postmasters.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The following postmasters were appointed in Kentucky, Wednesday: Eureka, Lyon county, Ida E. Herring; Lowder, Greenup county, A. M. Underwood; Rookfield, Warren county, Susan M. McDevitt; Veron, Monroe county, T. L. Gist.

Killed By a Train.

Butler, Ky., Nov. 1.—John Cooney, aged 23, was instantly killed by a train five miles north of here. He was found lying near the track. It is supposed he was sitting on the end of the ties and fell asleep. Cooney had been living with R. Hagedorn, near Alexander Station.

Outbreak of Smallpox.

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 1.—A confirmed report from Catlettsburg says there are 25 well-developed cases of smallpox there. It is thought Catlettsburg will be quarantined. There is one case at Denton, a few miles back of Ashland.

Killed in a Runaway.

Greensburg, Ky., Nov. 1.—Near Summersville Leslie Milby, a son of Alex. Milby, had his life crushed out by a four-horse team that he was driving becoming scared and running away.

Arrested for Burglary.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 1.—Joseph Shoals, a Negro, is under arrest here for burglary. Shoals has confessed to entering the houses of Rogers Barr and Henry Innis, where he got nearly $100 in cash.

Attempted Suicide.

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 1.—Miss Sadie Lampton, of Ashland, attempted suicide at her home by cutting her throat from ear to ear. The cause is unknown. Physicians think her mind is unbalanced.

Aged Woman Falls Dead.

Morehead, Ky., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Mollie Stamper, aged 80, fell dead while walking across the floor at her home on Wagner Fork Wednesday morning.

John Splan Buys a Filly.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 1.—John Splan, of Cleveland, has bought of Peter Duryea, of Patech Wilkes stock farm, the three-year-old brown filly by Patech Wilkes, dam by Red Wilkes, for $3,000.
